

Custody Situations

In circumstances where a parent cannot be located or there is no formal custody order, it is understood by the undersigned parent that they are assuming all legal responsibility for the child. Additionally, if the absent parent does express interest in the child's therapy, this document serves as written consent by the custodial parent to understand that the Counseling Center at Heritage, LLC is required to provide the absent parents with any records he/she requests. If there comes a point where the absent parent becomes present, the Counseling Center at Heritage, LLC will need to obtain consent for treatment from that parent.

Biological Parent in Question:

_____ (Mother)

_____ (Father)

Reason for no consent:

Cannot be located

No existing custody order

Client Name: _____ Client Date of Birth: _____

Client (or parent/guardian) Signature

Date

Printed Name

I would like a copy of this form for my records

I would not like a copy of this form for my records